in collaboration with Kerala State Higher Education Council

MES Mampad College is a rural Autonomous institution run by Modern Educational Society, offering UG, PG and Research Programmes. Established in 2007, the College has made considerable educational growth and subsequent empowerment of a region in Kerala where the educational facilities were scanty.

MESMAC International Conference was initiated in 2016 as a Golden Jubilee venture where cross-disciplinary dialogues were made possible involving thought leaders, academicians and scholars. The first two editions of the conference have established it as the leading college conference in South India.

People First! Man, Machine, Milieu, the theme of the 2019 edition of MESMAC International Conference has attracted enormous attention ever since it was announced a year back. The conference continues to be the single college and academy conference around the globe to not abstractly have received a critical acclaim for its growing popularity and acceptance.

People is an amorphous entity. Cloved to reside nation to community, follows to things, it exists in multiple guises. People hardly come to being as People and is always fractured off the context of people into things. The unbroken object of all inquiries, the attributes but in a subject of massive practices, People is the core and not simultaneously things and spaces, in perceptions and responses. People are also reflecting and inscribable. Fiction weaves by People and technology has its roots in the name of people. Accordingly being Manual and used, vilified and foisted, booted, varnished and subjected warily, People has a story to tell.

The interdisciplinary interventions in 'People First!' will debate the scope or nature of the scholarly, instructional and academic interventions against the machine intelligence of data. Across domains like Food Innovation, Poultry Sciences, Green Chemistry, Smart Culture and Biotech Genes, it will debate the interconnectivity of People-ability of the times as the 'MAN' in 'MAM' (Machine, Man, Milieu) paradigm against on-line, 3D printed classrooms, 8000+ videos, 1000+ articles and 1000+ research papers.

The 2019 edition of the MESMAC International Conference will be inaugurated by Sir, Richard J. Roberts, PhD, FRS, Nobel Laureate in Physiology / Medicine (1987), (Oxford Scholar, KJ-SOMC).

Dr. Ashraf Kadakkal, PhD, OBE, Professor, Dept of Microbiology, University of Kerala, will inaugurate the conference. The keynote will be delivered by Dr. Ashraf Kadakkal, PhD, OBE, Professor, Dept of Microbiology, University of Kerala, on January 13, 2019. MES Mampad College is glad to involve so many eminent scholars to be organized in association with the Kerala State Higher Education Council.
